

General

Who can come? The camp is open to any student who will enter Grades 4-8 in the fall of 2015. Evergreen Park residency not required.

What is the schedule? The camp will meet Monday-Friday from 9 a.m.—12:30 p.m. from June 15th through July 9th. Performances will take place on July 9th in the evening and July 10th in the morning. There will be no camp on Friday, July 3rd or Monday, July 6th. More specific performance information to follow.

What's the show? The first production for Spotlight on 99th will be Schoolhouse Rock, Junior. It's an ensemble show with lots of featured performers - everyone's a star!

What will the kids do during camp? Campers will receive music, dance, and acting instruction as they prepare for their performances. They will also assemble their own props for the show.

Who will be working with the campers? Amy Kazin is the director of the camp. She is on the fine arts staff at EPCHS and has been directing shows there since 2000. Students will also interact with other community theater veterans and EPCHS theater alumni and students.

What is the cost and what does it include? The cost of the camp is $200, which includes 3 1/2 weeks of instruction, the student script/workbook for the production, a show t-shirt (which will serve as their costume for the show), and a post-show cast party on July 10th.

Are there any other hidden costs? Tickets for the production itself will be $3 for adults and $2 for children and seniors. Campers will need a pair of dark shorts and gym shoes to complete their costume.

How can I sign up? Complete the registration form and return with payment to EPCHS to the attention of Amy Kazin. All registration must be prepaid. Limited space is available, so sign up now!

Who can I contact for more information? Amy Kazin 708-398-1260 or akazin@evergreenpark.org
